

WEATHER INDICATIONS—FAIR, COLDER.
DAILY OR
ABOUT THAT VACANT FLAT.
YOU CAN LET IT TO THE BEST OF TENANTS.
14 WORDS 30 CENTS
IN THE WORLD.
SUNDAY

THE EVENING EDITION
The World
NEW YORK, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 7, 1894.
PRICE ONE CENT.

WEATHER INDICATIONS—FAIR, COLDER.
DAILY OR
LAST MONTH THE WORLD PUBLISHED
12,571 Houses, Rooms, Apartments and Boarding Houses.
2,881 More than for the corresponding month last year.
2,880 More than any other New York newspaper.
14-Word Advt. Costs Only 30 Cts.
IN THE WORLD.
SUNDAY

BREAKS All Records=The World's Circulation For the First Two Months of 1894 Averaged, Daily 433,167

LAST EDITION.
GERRY'S "CHARITY."

Dancing Master Marwig the Latest Victim of His Autocracy.

Anna Wilks Danced at a "World" Bread Fund Entertainment.

And Her Manager Is Now Called to Account for It.

Another evidence of the Gerry Society's autocracy was shown to-day by the arrest of Carl Marwig, the dancing master, for allowing little Anna Wilks to dance at the Fifth Avenue Theatre last Wednesday afternoon for the benefit of "The World's" Free Bread Fund. Marwig was arraigned before Justice McMahon, in Jefferson Market Court, this morning on a summons obtained by Agents Agnew and Gormley, of the Gerry Society.

The child, who is nine years old, lives with her parents at 522 West Seventeenth street. Her mother, Mrs. Anna Wilks, and her father, Edward P. Wilks, who is engineer at Daly's Theatre, were in court, and explained that they had allowed their daughter to appear before an audience in aid of a great charity.

Lawyer Franklin J. Bischoff, of 290 Broadway, represented Mr. and Mrs. Wilks, and waived examination. A complaint was drawn up, and the case will be heard by a jury in the Court of General Sessions.

Commodore Gerry was in court this morning to see that his orders did not miscarry.

He appeared to be extremely well satisfied that he had been able to display his power to call charitable-minded people to account for a technical breach of the law under which he flourishes.

Gerry takes exception to the fact that Mr. Marwig neglected to obtain a license for Miss Wilks to dance. Hence his arrest.

Hinnough Victim Better.

Maurice Hinnough, a switch cleaner, of 22 Chambers square, who was taken to Chambers Street police station yesterday on a charge of attempting to commit suicide, was reported better this morning.

POLICE CAPTAINS WAKE UP.

Several Raids Made as a Result of Supt. Byrne's Actions.

As a result of Supt. Byrne's activity among police captains, as shown by his prosecution of Price and Martens, and the conference held at Police Headquarters Monday, several raids were made last night in various precincts.

Hattie Miller, the alleged proprietress of the house 877 Seventh avenue, was held for trial in Jefferson Market Court this morning. Her arrest was due to a raid made by Capt. Price's detectives last night. Two women and a man found in the house were also taken into custody.

The Nineteenth Precinct police were also busy last night. Four of Capt. Schmittberger's detectives arraigned before Justice McMahon the keepers of two alleged disorderly houses. They were Juliette Laorite, of 134 West Twenty-sixth street, and Annie Ericson, of 122 West Twenty-ninth street. Both were held for examination. Street police arrested over 30 women in the streets of the two precincts. Most of these women were fined.

TO NOTIFY HIS FRIENDS.

W. A. Clevenger Again Publishes His Marriage Notice.

In reference to the publication in a morning paper to-day, of the marriage on Feb. 23, 1892, of William A. Clevenger, the diamond dealer of 16 Maiden Lane, and Miss Frances Emory, of 261 West Thirty-seventh street, Mr. Clevenger said that the reason the ceremony was kept quiet, was that his wife was in mourning at the time. The wedding was an extremely quiet one, only witnesses and the Rev. Morgan Dix being present.

Mr. Clevenger says he published the marriage at the time, but that many of his friends had never seen it, so that he was continually surprised them by telling them of the marriage. He therefore concluded that it would be wise to again publish the notice.

SUICIDE WAS HARRY SEARLY.

His Body Identified by a Fellow-Insurance Clerk.

The body of the man who committed suicide in Central Park yesterday morning has been identified at the Morgue as that of Harry Searly, thirty-five years old, of Arlington avenue, East New York.

The identification was made this morning by Frank Pinner, of 210 Floyd street, who was a fellow clerk of Searly. The body will be taken to Brooklyn this afternoon.

BOMB IN BOW STREET.

Or Else Some Practical Joker Is Fooling London's Police.

Mysterious Tin Box Found on a Window-Sill at the Station.

It Had a Burned-Out Fuse and Contained a Cartridge.

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, March 7.—The police of London in general and the division in particular, are suffering from another dynamite scare; but their previous experiences in this line have led people to look with suspicion upon any explosive mystery unearthed by the bluecoats of London.

According to the story told by Supt. Richard W. Stables of the Police Division referred to, a tin box, supposed to contain dynamite or some other high explosive, was found at 7.30 this morning upon one of the window-sills of the historical Bow street police station, close to the Extradition Court.

The tin box is described as being two inches deep, one inch broad and having a round hole in it, from which protruded portions of a burned fuse.

The discovery of the box was made by one of the policemen attached to the station, and he immediately gave the alarm. The inspectors and Superintendent were called and the box was taken to the yard, where it was soaked for a long time in water before anybody cared to subject it to a closer examination.

The discovery of the alleged bomb was signalled to Scotland Yard, and from there the news spread that an attempt had been made to blow up Bow street police-station by means of a dynamite bomb. In fact, the startling "find" was soon manifested into a report that the station had actually been the scene of a dynamite explosion.

When the box was opened it was found to contain a cartridge, supposed to be loaded with some high explosive, and a letter which stated that it only contained ordinary gunpowder.

HIS JURY "FIXED."

So Says Attorney Shepard of Justice Sutherland's Trial.

Mr. Kelly's Peculiar Figuring in Plain Sight of the Jurors.

Prompt Action to Be Taken by the Prosecuting Officers.

It was officially announced in Brooklyn to-day by Col. Albert E. Lamb and Jere A. Wernberg, who are associated with Deputy Attorney-General Edward M. Shepard in prosecuting the Gravesend election cases, that they were in possession of facts which prove that the jury considering the case of Justice Kenneth F. Sutherland, of Coney Island, was "fixed," thus causing a disagreement.

Col. Lamb said he knew all the persons connected with the alleged outrage and that steps would be taken at once to bring the guilty persons to justice.

Sutherland was indicted for oppression, in connection with John V. McKane. His trial began immediately after McKane's case was sealed. The jury stood 9 for conviction and 3 for acquittal.

At the time rumors were circulated that the jury had been "fixed," but they were not confirmed until to-day, when Col. Lamb and Mr. Wernberg made the startling announcement that it was true, and that they were in possession of all the facts.

One of the time rumors was 3 that the jury had been "fixed," but they were not confirmed until to-day, when Col. Lamb and Mr. Wernberg made the startling announcement that it was true, and that they were in possession of all the facts.

After the jury had been discharged, and told the Deputy Attorney-General that at least one of the jurors had been paid to disagree with the fellows.

Both Col. Lamb and Mr. Wernberg visited Clerk Byrne in the Court of Oyer and Terminer to-day, and arranged for the calling of an extra panel for next Monday, when Sutherland will again be placed on trial.

"We will take steps," said Mr. Wernberg, "to prevent this panel from being tampered with and jurors from being fixed."

The three jurors who refused to render a verdict of guilty in the Sutherland case are Edward J. Brennan, Edward Volod and Daniel Lacy.

A strange story came to the ears of Mr. Shepard, last Thursday, after the jury had been discharged. It was that the jurors had been paid to disagree with the fellows.

The jurors who sat in the box, owing to their elevated position in the Sutherland case are Edward J. Brennan, Edward Volod and Daniel Lacy.

A strange story came to the ears of Mr. Shepard, last Thursday, after the jury had been discharged. It was that the jurors had been paid to disagree with the fellows.

The jurors who sat in the box, owing to their elevated position in the Sutherland case are Edward J. Brennan, Edward Volod and Daniel Lacy.

A LIVELY DAY IN THE SENATE.

Hard at Work on the Tariff Schedules.

BRIDGE TRUSTEES MAY GO. IT ROILED M'ADAM.

State Senate Passes Bradley's Bill Removing Them.

Figures Quoted to Show Overvaluation of Property Acquired.

(By Associated Press.)

ALBANY, March 7.—State Senator Daniel Bradley this morning put in more plain words his charges against the present Brooklyn Bridge Trustees. He said:

"I have stood the attacks of persons who say I haven't any proofs long enough. If anything is needed to show that the affairs have been grossly mismanaged, just look at the prices paid for property to build what is now known as the Bayside."

The records of the trustees show that they paid $1,600,000 for property acquired that by the books of the city assessors was shown to be assessed at only $600,000, or two and one-third times less than its appraised value; and yet all property in Brooklyn is assessed for at least one-tenth more than you can sell it for. It is easy to show that the trustees wasted in that one transaction $1,000,000 of the taxpayers' money.

"Why, the Brooklyn City Railroad gave $70,000 for a piece of church property on the plans for a terminal station. A few months after the bridge trustees paid $170,000 for the same property, and now they have granted to this same Railroad Company, without compensation, the right to lay tracks on this very ground. I shall present these and other facts to the Assembly Committee, if there is an attempt to stop the bill there."

The Senate passed Mr. Bradley's bill. The vote on the bill was 19 yeas to 6 nays.

When the bill was up for final passage, Senator Coffey moved for reconsideration of the bill, and during the course of the debate said: "I have seen the bill, and I am sure that it is a good bill. I am ready to meet them outside as plain Dan Bradley."

The apartment of Bernard Strauss, on the second floor of 133 McKibbin street, were entered by means of the fire-escape in the rear, and $100 worth of jewelry was taken from a bureau drawer. The robbery occurred Monday night, although the facts were not made public until to-day, and as the two places are less than half a mile apart, the police believe the same party operated in both cases.

Charles James Ennis is thoroughly aroused as to the necessity of suppressing burglars, and last night he had a dozen men in citizen's clothes watching the houses throughout the precinct.

He Would Like to Send Drunken Women to Prison for Life.

No Alimony for Mrs. Knuth Pending Decision in Her Suit.

When Judge McAdam, of the Superior Court, took his seat this morning, the Court was crowded with men and women who wanted their matrimonial bonds severed.

Among the first of the cases called was that of Catherine Knuth, of 1804 Third avenue.

She was married to John Knuth on October 20th, 1864. They have four children, the youngest being more than twenty-one years old.

Mrs. Knuth's attorney, Jacob Levy, read a long affidavit, setting forth that the defendant owns a bakery, and has an income of $100 a month. Malvina Italianer, of 208 First avenue, is co-respondent.

Lawyer Levy asked for alimony and counsel fee pending the final decision. He presented an affidavit that his client was too ill to appear in court.

In opposition counsel for the defendant presented an affidavit that Knuth had been compelled to leave his wife on account of her dissipated habits. A certificate from the Warden of Bellevue Hospital to the effect that Mrs. Knuth had been treated there for alcoholism, was also offered.

"That's enough," said Judge McAdam, "the motion is denied. I have no use for a drunken woman."

"But, Your Honor, this was all ten years ago," persisted Levy.

"I don't care," A drunken man is bad enough, but a drunken woman is worse. If I had my way I'd send drunken women to prison for life."

"But, Your Honor—"

"That will do. I won't hear you any further. You ought to be ashamed of yourself to bring such a suit in a court of equity. I tell you again I think your client ought to be sent to the island for life."

"I've told you I would not hear you further on this matter and if you persist it will cost you $10."

Lawyer Levy, accompanied by his two pretty daughters of his alleged drunken client, hurried from the court-room.

"It is not true that my mother is a drunkard," said one of the young women to an "Evening World" reporter.

The case of Annie M. Scherer, who wanted a divorce from Henry M. Scherer was called next.

They were married Dec. 8, 1888. A short time ago Mrs. Scherer met her husband at Sixteenth street and Third avenue with another woman and followed them to an alleged disorderly house. Judge McAdam reserved decision.

Catherine E. Erving asked for a divorce from James E. Erving, to whom she was married in September, 1884. He swore that he had been guilty of improper conduct with a woman who she knew only as "Nellie." Judge McAdam reserved decision.

Next Domenico Nozzalillo asked for a divorce from Flomena Nozzalillo. He swore she was living with another man. Several witnesses corroborated his allegations.

Effie M. Darrow, who is pretty but careworn and small, applied for a divorce from Joseph Darrow. They were married in April, 1882, and separated in April, 1883.

Mrs. Darrow swore she saw her husband on October 1st last in West Twenty-ninth street with a woman who followed them to an alleged disorderly house. She waited outside for about an hour and they reappeared. Judge McAdam granted the decree.

THE BRITISH IN NICARAGUA.

Action on the Landing at Bluefields Urged at Washington.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, March 7.—The Department of State has received the official information of the operations of the British naval forces at Bluefields, near the mouth of the Nicaragua canal. It came in the shape of a despatch from United States Minister Baker at Managua.

The Minister says that the United States Consul at San Juan del Norte, Mr. Brada, telegraphs him that soldiers from the British warship Cleopatra have been landed at Bluefields, and strongly urges that a United States naval vessel be sent there at once. There is no explanation in the Minister's despatch of the reason for the landing of British forces.

The preceding reports of Consul Brada show that when the Nicaraguan Government forces occupied Bluefields, the reigning Mosquito chief appealed to the British Consul at San Juan del Norte for protection, and the question of interest at this stage of affairs is whether the British troops have been landed to afford that protection to the Mosquito, or whether the landing was made to protect British citizens only.

Sensor Morgan has reported from Committee on Foreign Relations a resolution which the Senate adopted, asking the State Department for information as to whether the British Government has landed troops at Bluefields, or on the Mosquito coast of Nicaragua.

FOUGHT LIKE A DEMON.

It Took Thirteen Men to Subdue a Delirious Tremens Victim.

William Boyle, thirty-seven years old, of Thirty-second street and Second avenue, was taken to Bellevue Hospital to-day while suffering from delirium tremens. Boyle, who is a carpenter, had a bad scalp wound, which he received in a fall. He was placed in the prison ward.

Boyle fought so hard that it required seven policemen, a roundsman and five hospital attendants to overpower him. He was finally got into a strait-jacket, and was then securely strapped to a cot.

The hospital authorities say they have never before had a man in the hospital who possessed such strength. He was arrested by Policemen Scully, of the East Thirty-fifth street station.

Landslide Hits a Train.

(By Associated Press.)

PITTSBURGH, March 7.—While engine 277 and five coal cars on the Pittsburgh Youngstown and Ashland branch of the Port Wayne road were passing Kenwood, thirty miles west of here, at 3 o'clock, a heavy landslide came down the hill and swept the train into the Beaver River. The trainmen were killed or injured. A man was seen in nature. The men were Engineer M. Hubbard, Fireman George Johnston and Conductor Thomas Reed.

Shot Her Husband Accidentally.

Mrs. Julius Knippen, of East New York, who was charged with shooting her husband a few days ago, was discharged from custody by Justice Connolly this morning. The shooting occurred from Knippen's attempting to take from his wife a pistol which he had seized for self-defense.

Weather Forecast.

The weather forecast for the thirty-six hours ending at 3 P. M. to-morrow is as follows: Fair; colder; northwesterly winds.

The following report shows the changes in the temperature during the morning hours as indicated by the thermometer at Fort's parkway:

A. M. 5:30 A. M. 6:30 A. M. 7:30 A. M.

LAST EDITION.

GLADSTONE TAKEN ILL.

Ex-Premier Has a Chill After a Dinner at Brooks's Club.

IS CONFINED TO HIS BED.

Two Physicians Called and His Condition Is Regarded as Serious.

BAD NEWS SPREADS QUICKLY.

The Grand Old Man Himself Says He'll Be All Right in a Day or Two.

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, March 7.—Mr. Gladstone has been taken seriously ill.

The ex-Premier walked home from Brooks's Club, 60 St. James street, yesterday evening after dining there with his late secretaries. As a result he contracted a chill, and upon reaching his home had to be hurried off to bed. A physician was summoned and he was put under treatment.

This morning Mr. Gladstone's condition was such that another physician was summoned to attend him, and this afternoon one of the physicians in attendance gave a statement to the newspapers which indicates that the ex-Premier's illness is undoubtedly serious. The doctor said that the absence of a high fever, however, indicated that there was no great danger at present.

Mr. Gladstone insists that he is only suffering from a temporary indisposition, and that he will be all right in a day or so. His physicians will not allow him to leave his bed, however, until a considerable improvement has taken place in his condition.

Naturally the report of Mr. Gladstone's illness has spread with remarkable rapidity, and from many quarters inquiries are already coming in asking for particulars and expressing the hope that he will soon be on the high road to recovery.

HERBERT GLADSTONE'S PLUM

He Is First Commissioner of Public Works—A New Whip.

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, March 7.—Herbert Gladstone, Parliamentary Secretary of the Home Office, has accepted the position of First Commissioner of Public Works, made vacant by the choice of Mr. Hugh George Shaw-Lefevre, President of the Local Government Board.

Gladstone will not have a seat in the Cabinet, although his predecessor was a Cabinet Minister.

The Times announces that Mr. Shaw-Lefevre, and Knight Causton, M. P. for South-west, West, has been appointed secretary to the Treasury. He is in favor of Home Rule for Ireland.

McCarthyites May Revolt.

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, March 7.—There are symptoms of revolt among some of the leading McCarthyites in regard to the attitude of Justin McCarthy on the question of the Premiership. The attitude of Mr. McCarthy is denounced as showing weakness and as a serious error of judgment.

THE PRINCE OUT IN A GALE.

Wales Starts for Cannes on His Yacht Britannia.

(By Associated Press.)

MARSEILLES, March 7.—The Prince of Wales's cutter Britannia, with the Prince of Wales on board, started for Cannes to-day in a gale of wind, and some anxiety is expressed here as to the outcome of the trip.

Everybody has a good word for Dr. Smith's Corn Ointment.

Its fame is world-wide.

OVER 433,000 PER DAY.

A GAIN OF 67,858 PER DAY in ONE Year.
The World's Circulation Greater Than That of Any Other Newspaper Printed in the English Language.
A GAIN OF 125,629 PER DAY in THREE Years.

New York, March 3d, 1894.

"After a thorough examination of the circulation 'books, press-room reports, mail-room reports, paper 'companies' bills for amount of paper furnished, orders 'from news companies and newdealers, we find that the 'circulation of THE WORLD (morning and evening editions) 'for the months of January and February, 1894, averaged '433,167 copies per day, and so certify."

John Edward Simmons, Chairman
Thomas L. James, Secretary
W. B. Bloomfield
Henry C. Davis
Charles W. Dayton

On Saturday, March 3, a committee of well-known financiers, comprising Messrs. J. EDWARD SIMMONS, President Fourth National Bank and ex-President of the Stock Exchange; THOMAS L. JAMES, President Lincoln National Bank and ex-President of the United States; A. B. HEPBURN, President Third National Bank, ex-Comptroller of the United States Currency, ex-Bank Examiner of the United States and ex-Superintendent of State Banks; E. W. BLOOMFIELD, of the dry goods house of Bloomingdale Bros.; HENRY CLAWSON, of the banking house of Henry Claws & Co.; and CHARLES W. DAYTON, Postmaster of the city of New York, after spending over two hours carefully investigating The World's circulation books, press-room reports, mail-room reports, paper companies' bills for amount of paper furnished, receipts of mail bills, orders from news companies and other records, and playing searching questions to The World's employees connected with the circulation department, signed the above certificate.

HE IS WANTED IN BROOKLYN.

So Carl Norlander Is Under Arrest in Boston.

(By Associated Press.)

BOSTON, March 7.—Carl Norlander, of 66 Summer street, East Boston, formerly of Brooklyn, N. Y., was arrested here this morning charged with the larceny of $1,000 in money in Brooklyn, about two months ago.

The order for the arrest was given by Supt. of Police Campbell, of Brooklyn, and he has been notified that the man is in custody. Norlander is about twenty-nine years of age.

Thirty-three Years a Detective.

The desk of the Twelfth Precinct station-house was taken with force to-day in evidence of the success in which Detective Edward Shalvey is hot by his many friends. It was the completion of Detective Shalvey's thirty-third year in the Police Department, he has been in the force since March 1, 1861. Notwithstanding the fact that Detective Shalvey is one of the old timers in the Department he is still good for many years more of service.

Voted to Change His Name.

At a meeting of the American Hunt and Pony Racing Association, at 23 Broad street, this afternoon, it was resolved to change its name to the American Hunt and Pony Racing Association. The next meeting will be held March 14.

Davis & Hendrick Fail.

John M. Davis and Frank C. Hendrick, who composed the firm of Davis & Hendrick, real estate brokers at 41 Liberty street, made an assignment to-day to John P. Fox, with a preference to Fox.

MRS. HOLSTEIN RECOVERS.

Police Believe Her Assaultant Committed Another Robbery.

Mrs. Leah Holstein, who was attacked by burglars early yesterday morning in her store, 104 Moore street, Williamsburg, is attending to business again to-day. She was simply suffering from a slight scalp wound, and was discharged from St. Catherine's Hospital at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Detectives Campbell and Lyon, of the Stagg street station, have scoured the entire neighborhood without finding any trace of the burglars.

They are also quietly at work upon another robbery, which they believe was performed by the same men who attacked Mrs. Holstein.

The apartment of Bernard Strauss, on the second floor of 133 McKibbin street, were entered by means of the fire-escape in the rear, and $100 worth of jewelry was taken from a bureau drawer. The robbery occurred Monday night, although the facts were not made public until to-day, and as the two places are less than half a mile apart, the police believe the same party operated in both cases.

Charles James Ennis is thoroughly aroused as to the necessity of suppressing burglars, and last night he had a dozen men in citizen's clothes watching the houses throughout the precinct.

A Drunkard Says

I can't stop. This could actually be said with the advent of the Rainy Season.

Dr. Henry C. Cooper's Funeral.

The funeral of Dr. Henry C. Cooper, who died at his residence at the New York Medical College, 112 Twenty-sixth street, New York, of which he had been Secretary for twenty years, was held to-day at 11 o'clock at St. Paul's Church, in Brooklyn. Services were made in German.

Just as necessary as a dictionary is
THE WORLD ALMANAC